

Now its your turn to let visual art inspire you!

Greeley is lucky to be filled with incredible artists who have created many fantastic murals all around the city.

Follow the link of Greeley murals and find one that inspires you! Visit the mural (or several) and complete the art analysis activity to guide you in creating music inspired by visual art.

If you are not in Greeley, or would prefer a digital option look at the Betony Coons murals below.

Now consider how those visual concepts can be portrayed through music.

For example, if the piece is more vertical (as in 'Apartments at Maddie Mural at The Elliot) consider using a more vertical melody, with large leaps between registers
